4. FEES

- International students must pay all course fees and charges, including administration fee and have a valid Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) in order to secure their enrolment with Hays International College; as the Department of Immigration and Border Protection requires overseas students to maintain an OSHC for the duration of time they are in Australia.
- If a student cannot provide a valid OSHC at the time of enrolling the student may request Hays International College to organize one for the student (and the cost will be recovered from the student) or they can select an approved provider and pay the insurance themselves.
- Exceptions: the following students do not need an OSHC if they are:
  - a Norwegian student covered by the Norwegian National Insurance Scheme
  - a Swedish student covered by the National Board of Student Aid or by Kammarkollegiet
  - a Belgian student covered under the Reciprocal Health Care Agreement with Australia.
- Students will pay all fees and charges agreed to at the time of enrolment, as outlined in the Student Enrolment Agreement and Payment schedule, until the completion of their course (however any changes to an enrolment for any course will incur administration fees)
- Tuition fees will not be transferred to another education provider
- Administration fee, books and materials, uniform & knife kit (where applicable), OSHC, accommodation placement and airport pickup fees are non refundable
- An initial deposit is payable upon enrolment as specified in the Student Enrolment Agreement and Payment schedule

Tuition fees
Tuition fees are defined in section 7 of the ESOS Act. They are fees received by a provider (from or on behalf of an overseas student or intending overseas student) that are “directly related to the provision of a course that the provider is providing, or offering to provide, to the student”. Tuition fees are typically compulsory fees for the delivery of the enrolled course and include items such as:
- tutorials and tutoring sessions
- lectures
- additional requisite training including practicum and practice hours
- ancillary costs for fieldwork, excursions or laboratories
- specialist materials that are mandatory and relate to the provision of the course.

Non-tuition fees
Non-tuition fees cover other items not directly related to tuition, and may be compulsory or discretionary.

DIBP: means the Department of Immigration and Border Protection

TPS: means the Tuition Protection Service

Student Default – Part 5, Division 2 Subdivision B of the ESOS Act *

Under section 47B of the ESOS Act, an overseas student or intending overseas student defaults, in relation to a course at a location if:
- the course starts at the location on the agreed starting day, but the student does not start the course on that day (and has not previously withdrawn); or
- the student withdraws from the course at the location (either before or after the agreed starting day); or
- the registered provider of the course refuses to provide, or continue providing, the course to the student at the location because of one or more of the following:
  - the student failed to pay an amount payable to the provider for the course;
  - the student breached a condition of his/her student visa;
  - misbehaviour by the student.

Note: subsection 47A(2): A student does not default for failing to start a course on the agreed starting day if he/she does not start that course because the provider departs in relation to the course at the location under subparagraph 46A(1)(a)(i).

If a student or intending student defaults you must provide a refund in accordance with the requirements under either section 47D or 47E of the ESOS Act, depending on which section applies to the circumstances of the default situation.

The notice must be in writing and comply with the requirements of section 47C.

If you fail to discharge your obligations under sections 47D or 47E, it is an offence under section 47C of the ESOS Act and serious penalties apply.

- the provider fails to start providing the course to the student at the location on the agreed starting date or;
- after the course starts but before it is completed, it ceases to be provided to the student at the location and the student has not withdrawn from the course before the default day.

Note: Section 46A sets out further rules prescribing when a provider defaults.

Under section 46B of the ESOS Act, you must notify the Secretary and the TPS Director of the default within 3 business days of the default occurring.
Under section 46B, you must also notify students in relation to whom you have defaulted. The notices must be in writing and meet the requirements of section 46B.

If you fail to discharge your obligations to the student under section 46D, it is an offence under section 46E of the ESOS Act and serious penalties apply.

If you do not meet your obligations affected students may be assisted by the TPS Director.
